TOMS RIVER

FOREWORD

For fifty-six years the tribes of Indian Tom have come and gone among the tepees and wigwams of Toms River High School. Under the wise guidance of big chiefs and medicine men many papooses have grown into mature braves and squaws.

Once again a tribe is leaving the happy hunting grounds of the Indians to venture into the world of palefaces. This tribe of nineteen hundred and forty-seven takes with it fond memories and reminiscences and leaves this tale of a happy year.

"From the darkness of the wigwam
To the warm life of the sunshine."

HIGH SCHOOL

TOMS RIVER NEW JERSEY

DEDICATED TO OLD INDIAN TOM ...

Many moons ago a small tribe of Indians inhabited this section of the Jersey coast. One day a sailing ship landed near the present site of this town. The Indians, instead of attacking these wayward sailors, welcomed them with open arms. The seamen traded peacefully among the redmen, exchanging baubles and trinkets for corn and other edibles. The redmen showed such great kindness to the whites that the visitors promised to return. And return they did many times. The oldest and wisest of the tribe was always on hand to meet the sailors. Thus a fast friendship was formed between the whites and the leader of the Indians. On subsequent visits some special gift was always brought to Indian Tom, as the chief of the tribe was called. Although kind and considerate, Tom, in playing lacrosse and other games, always played to win.

This spirit has been handed down through the years. It is what has made our high school great. Thousands have graduated from TRHS but the spirit of Old Indian Tom has never dimmed. Look around tomorrow on the athletic field or in the classroom. Look at the number of people attending the sporting events. The braves and squaws are trying to keep this shining tradition untarnished. We of the "Cedar Chest" staff gratefully pay tribute in this issue to Indian Tom, real or fictional; to the squaws and braves who attend his high school; to the athletic teams who scatter his fame far and wide and fill the trophy cases with emblems of victory; to the traditions, old and new, in and about the high school.

Toms River may not win every battle or contest but it will win its share because this school spirit is present. Keep that spirit high, underclassmen. Remember "Toms River High School is the noblest and the best. To the end we shall stand up and cheer."

.. AND TO BARBARA TILTON CARLINO

To Mrs. Barbara Tilton Carlino we dedicate our 1947 yearbook. The good nature and vivacious personality of our untiring little secretary have made her an invaluable and irreplaceable asset to TRHS.

Her clicking typewriter, her enduring patience—at times sorely tried—her ever-present smile do much to brighten an ordinarily dismal office. Efficiency is her by-word and idleness a term with which she is but vaguely familiar. Though seldom inactive, Toms River's Good Samariton is always willing to lend a hand wherever her assistance is required. Who has not requested, and been given, a badly needed white slip from her inexhaustible supply?

To her we say, "Good luck and thank you."

Back from "blue and gold" to "moroon and white."

"We have put you to the trial To the proof have put your patience, By the outrage of our actions. We have found you great and noble." "Ay! why do the living," said they, "Lay such heavy burdens on us? Ay, to bear such heavy burdens On the long and weary journey!"

"Skilled in all the crafts of making, In all manly orts and labors."

"Taste the food that stands before you: It has magic virtues in it, It is blessed and enchanted."

"All your bowls and all your kettles They shall shine like shells of silver."

The health and happiness of the student body is placed to a great degree in the efficient hands of this hard-working staff. The delicious appetizing meals are prepared and served by the workers of the cafeteria. Our school nurse, Mrs. Daisy Wood, binds up our wounds and looks after our well-being. The care and maintenance of the grounds and buildings is in the hands of this hard-working staff of eight men who seldom say "no" to a request.

"—Gentle hands and kindly action— Wash the blood stains from your fingers."

"Not so long and wide the world is, Nor so rude and rough the way is That we shall not fight and conquer!"

"Weary spirits panting under heavy burdens."

Charles Aitken, Jay Lillie, and Fred Tiner, presidents, respectively, of the junior, sophomore, and freshman classes, soberly reflect upon their grave responsibilities.

UNDERCLASSES

The Class of '48 is one of the most active classes TRHS ever had. Many of the football and baseball team members were juniors, and there were many Sports Nite stars among the junior girls. About half of the "Date With Judy" cast were members of the class. Other students directed their brains and energy toward plans for an extra special Junior Prom.

The newly organized boys' singing group is largely composed of juniors, and Warren Dosher was selected to play first cornet in the All-State band.

This group of officers was selected early in the year to lead the Junior Class. Charles Aitken was elected president: Helene Larsen, vicepresident; Doris Bettauer, secretary, and Jeanne Gesser, treasurer. Jim Seibert was voted to be the class's new representative on the Student Council.

SOPHOMORES

One of the most successful dances of the year was the sophomore class dance, the main event sponsored by the sophomores. The theme was built around Valentine's Day. The Regents supplied the music; sophomore talent was displayed through entertainment; refreshments were served during the evening.

Eddie Hazard and Harry Michael were the only Junior Varsity football players that were commended this year for not having missed a single football practice in two years.

The class officers include: Jay Lillie, president; Tom Philipp, vice-president; Joy Applegate, secretary, and Esther Wilbur, treasurer.

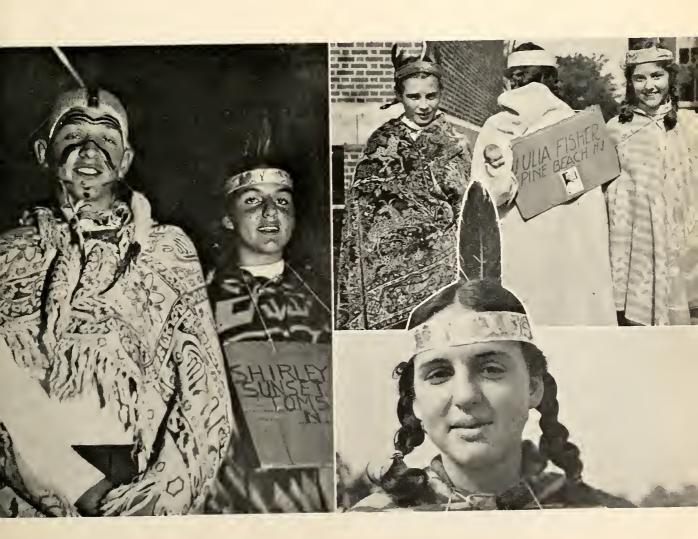

The 1947 Freshman Class of 175 students, the largest in the history of the Toms River High School, gave a good account of itself. Freshman homeroom 86 wan the "Cedar Berry" drive, and Room 67 led in the magazine sale. The freshman football team, coached by Mr. Ricketts, had a successful season. Some of the freshman players substituted for the varsity. Mary Herbert, Joanne Seibert, Joan Lane, and Nettie Wallace were twirlers. Several freshmen played in the band. Billy Maynard had a leading part in the school play. Kathleen Dauglas and Nancy Pierce were elected to the Boosters Club. The class is ably represented in the chorus and G-Clef Club, Our honored student teachers were: Kathleen Douglas, English 1; Patsy McInnis, Typing I and Junior Business Training, and Joan Keough, music.

"Dressed in deerskin shirt and leggings, Richly wrought with quills and wampum. On his head the eagle feathers, In his hand his bow of ash-wood."

ACTIVITIES

"Heord of all the misdemeanors, All the molice and the mischief." "Let me first consult the others; Let me ask the other beavers."

STUDENT COUNCIL

Miss Mary Costello guides the members of the Student Council into making wise, just decisions on matters that affect their classmates. Another example of democracy in action in Toms River High.

The members of the 1947 council: Edward

Westen, Joan Sinclair, Mary Cotov, Irving Wallach, and Richard Howe, seniors; Clifford Campbell, Barbara Fellows, Carol Finley, and James Seibert, juniors; Jay Lillie, Esther Wilbur, and Frances Roberson, sophomores; Joanne Seibert and Sandy Kassenoff, freshmen.

Council officers seek legal aid. Barbora Fellows, Dick Howe and Joan Sinclair see what the book says.

Miss Estelle Cassidy, helpful whatever the problem, correcting the torrent of stories; . . . a typing department ever willing to hurry a story through; . . . Mr. Maynard, generous in allowing the staff to use his shop for their work; . . . a key staff working long hours after school correcting proof, reading proof, and writing headlines; . . . and two highly efficient business managers and energetic group of homeroom leaders bringing a record $280.70 for subscriptions continued to make the "Cedar Berry" Toms River High School's most popular newspaper.

A DATE WITH JUDY

About the spring play: Harassed Mr. Foster becomes "the male with the most kissable lips," Mrs. Foster is the only bigamist in the PTA, when their impressionable vivacious teen-age daughter involves the entire family in a series of hilarious dilemmas in an effort to autshine Tootsie Whitemen as Queen of the Relief Ball.

Judy's success is finally assured when Tootsie is dethroned with hives and Oogie remains faithful.

STUDENT'S DAY

STUDENTS' DAY

In March Toms River High School held another successful Students' Day. A selected group of students assumed the duties and responsibilities of the faculty and the janitors. Under the leadership of Student Principal Junice Sica, order, quiet, and the usual dignity of a schooleday prevailed. All the students were anxious to co-operate despite the absence of faculty members.

Highlights of the day were a tomata pieeating contest at lunch time, and an entertaining assembly program in the afternoon. The program featured Thelma Elms who sang "Guilty" and "Oh, But I Da." Mr. Detwiler rezited ane of Tad Daly's famous poems, "Da Bigga Baseball." Al Sica, Chuck Benarick, Carl Vaddy, and George Savitsky, All-Americans from the University of Pennsylvania were also an the pragram. "The Weeping Willows," a sextet from New Jersey College for Women sang several selections.

THE LUX ET SONUS.

under the leadership of Mr. Davis, faculty adviser, and James Tilton, president, handles all classroom and auditorium movies, stage effects, and the public address systems. The club was enlarged this year to a record of two dozen members, all notorious class-cutters.

LIBRARY CLUB

What would we do without the Library Club? Miss McLean and sixty-one members were the hard-working people who kept the books in place and ready for use during the entire year. Highlight of the year was the club's trip to the Ice Show in the spring.

Sing and be happy! Members of the chorus met each week to practice their do, re, mi's under the guidance of Mrs. Rowe, singing instructor. The songs they sang for the Christmas program gave evidence of their hard work and ability. A spring concert was the club's big event of the year.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The Indian Chapter of the National Honor Society was chartered in May, 1946.

Membership in the society is based on scholastic ability, leadership, service, and character. Members are chosen from the senior and junior classes by a committee composed of faculty members.

FRENCH CLUB

The monsieurs and mademoiselles of the French Club had a busy year. The club functioned as a helpful supplement to the French classes. To develop fluency and to gain practice the club meetings were conducted almost entirely in French with coaching by Mrs. Ewart, faculty adviser.

SERVICE CLUB

Beautifying the school by arranging and planting flower beds was one achievement of the Service Club. The club also gave assistance to the Boosters' Club in selling tickets for football games and decorating for Christmas. Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Ewart the club had a successful year.

BOOSTERS' CLUB

"Boost or be Boosted,"—the motto of the Boosters' Club, the purpose of which is to boost school spirit by promoting attendance at athletic games, sponsoring intermural track meets and numerous dances. President, Philip Armstrong: vice-president, Philip Grant: secretary, Carol Finley, and treasurer, Barbara Fellows led the club through a successful year.

THE SLIDE RULE CLUB

Composed of seven members, this club began two years ago under the supervision of Mr. Edward Kuchnick. The club meets every Monday in room 62. The members become thoroughly familiar with the marvelous little instrument after which the club is named and are soon able to make use of it in their math courses.

SCIENCE CLUB

Directed by Mr. D. Davis, the Science Club delves experimentally into the field of science. Faced by formidable competition from clubs which meet purely for enjoyment, the Science Club, presided over by Bruce Blum; is held primarily to give the members experience in conducting experiments.

SPANISH CLUB

With Mr. Albini the club planned several fiestas during the year. The Spanish Club dance, a high spot in the school social program, was highlighted by an exhibition of Spanish dancing. The club is both interesting and informative.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUBS

The Photography Clubs under Mr. Goodman's able leadership this year again affered photo fiends the opportunity to practice and improve their art. The club pragram featured demonstrations by the members in new techniques and apparatus. The clubs also participated in several contests.

COLLEGE-CAREERS CLUB

Returning from the service last year, Mr. Woad reorganized the College-Careers Club. Here available opportunities for college and careers were investigated. President Bill Hansen with the cooperation of Vice-president Bob Camp and Secretary-Treasurer Mary Faith Larkin provided members with lecturers and sources of information to help them make wise choices in their vocations.

In sunshine or in rain, Mr. Konowitz and Miss Miller are always on hand to give their assistance in sports activities.

SPORTS

FOOTBALL

"And they stood there on the meadow Wildly glaring at each other; In their faces stern defiance, In their hearts the feuds of ages, The hereditary hatred, The ancestral thirst of vengeance. Then began the greatest battle That the war-birds ever witnessed."

The Indians encountered a tough schedule, playing every top Shore Conference team. The squad was handicapped by injuries and graduation.

Thanksgiving Day the warriors met a favored Lakewood eleven. However, they held the Piners to a 13-6 win in their best effort of the year.

"Stout Hearted Men," "Jealousy," Greig: yes, our band can play them all well, well enough, in fact, to win a first place in the State Firemen's Convention. Under the excellent supervision of Mr. Clouser, the school band is becoming known as one of the best in New Jersey.

"Sailing round in narrower circles, Hovering nearer, nearer, nearer."

"Why stand idly looking at us?
Come and wrestle with the others!"

"Homeword then he sailed exulting For the trophies of the battle."

Working with a group of inexperienced but hard-working boys, Coaches John Konowitz and Floyd Trachsel produced a basketball team with an even record. The varsity squad consisted of three sophomores, four juniors, and five seniors. The slow-starting season was highlighted by an impressive victory over Manasquan, being defeated for the first time in twenty-five consecutive wins. Ed Westen and Phil Grant supplied the scoring punch throughout the season. Bill Dudley, Phil Armstrong, Pete Weber and Junie Sica were the mainstays of the defense.

TRACK

Coached by Mr. Donald Kirk, last year's very successful track team once again brought home the Shore Conference Crown Trophy after defeating Manasquan, which was running a near-first. Aside from winning the Shore Conference, the Indians came in a close second place in the New Jersey State Meet, losing first place by a slight margin of points. Toms River trampled every opponent last year by at least a 20point lead. The two meets that were at all close were the Shore Conference and the State Meets. The team's high scoring was led by senior class members who have since graduated. We have, however, many flashy trackmen left, and we are looking forward to a successful season once again.

The following boys represent this year's track team: Eddie Wilbert, Herbert Zwickel, James Seibert, Philip Armstrong, Eddie Tolbert, Jack Corrigan, William Casler, James Snelling, Dick Howe, John Hopkinson, Harold Crane, Irving Wallach, Leland Froriep, Clyde Applegate, and Peter Weber. These boys will be coached by Mr. Miller, a new arrival at Toms River.

GIRLS' SPORTS

"Supple as the pliant bird-tree, Bending, swaying in the autumn."

"Listen to the happy maidens,
To their chatter and their talking,

Each year when the new squaws enter the high school tribe they draw a piece of red or white paper out of a box. This designates the team on which they play for the four years.

After a few maons, Miss Miller chooses certain girls to be members of the Leaders' Club. From this club are chosen two senior girls, who, with the aid of their teammates, present their annual program on Sports Nite. This event is eagerly anticipated by everyone, for the competition is keen.

A prize cup is given to the team that wins three years in succession.

CLASS HISTORY

It wasn't long ago that the class of '47 was a group of uncertain, curious and bashful frosh. With the coming of the years came self-assurance and eagerness to carry out our responsibilities as high school students.

We began our freshman year by electing capable officers: President, Junie Sica; vice-president, Ed Westen; secretary, Joan Sinclair; treasurer, Eileen Carroll. Joan Sinclair and Ed Westen were selected as Student Council members. The class afficers proved to be so campetent that they held their affices for three consecutive years. In the senior year, however, Junie Sica was chasen president; Dick Howe, vice-president; Joan Sinclair, secretary; Glo Douglas, treasurer.

Tams River sport fans cheered for our tall, rugged athletes. Starring in football were Junie Sica, Dick Howe, Pete Weber, Andy String, Gearge Yetman, Tiny Froriep, Dick Tunney, Al Hayes, and Pete Bender. Ed Westen, Pete Weber, Junie Sica, Phil Armstrang and Phil Grant were our basketball heraes. The senior boys wha excelled in baseball were Pete Weber, Dick Howe, Phil Grant, Tad Jendy, Al Hayes and Ed Westen. Last but not least such girl athletes as Sis Ottoson, Mary Sperlazza, Glo Douglas, Gerry Dech, Joan Sinclair, and Mary Cotov held the spotlight. Among the stage-struck seniors whose fine performances have made the Tams River plays so successful were Joan Sinclair, Dick Howe, Jane Zimmerman, Gla Douglas, Jim St. Pierre, Bob Eagle and George Yetman. The class of '47 has always outdone itself in an effort to sponsor school dances. One of these, the Junior Prom, was the most successful in years. In our sophamore year a well-attended barn dance offered fun and entertainment for the student body.

With the help of Mr. Reigle, the saphamore class sponsored a successful magazine and book drive for wounded saldiers. Joan Sinclair, Irving Wallach, Thelma and Ruth Hann, Alice Keller and Gerry Dech were among the enthusiastic seniors who helped make the Hallowe'en painting program so effective. The senior year has been the most successful year for the class of '47. In the first quarter the class was represented by a panel of nine seniors who publicly expressed their views on the topic of leisure time. Bill Hansen, Bob Camp, Marion Mc-Omber, Sara Leibrick, Jim Tilton, Martha Brafman, Eric Rau, Mary Faith Larkin and George Roy spake before The Modern Muses. Gearge Roy, Dick Howe and Bill Hansen were among the seniors who participated in the Township Day program of Ocean County.

In order to finance and support "The Cedar Berry" the staff conducted a successful subscription drive which was headed by Mary Faith Larkin and Tad Jendy. Hard-working seniors responsible for "The Cedar Berry" issues were Eric Rau, Bill Hansen, Dick Howe, Gloria Douglas, George Roy, Tad Jendy, Mary Faith Larkin, Mary Sperlazza, Peter Weber and Anne Cavender. Dick Howe, Bill Hansen, Gloria Douglas and Mary Cotov may well be proud of the time and effort that they spent in making this year's magazine subscription drive the most successful in the history of TRHS. Mary Faith Larkin and Mary Sperlazza were high salesmen.

No class history would be complete without mentioning the faculty whose untiring and willing efforts always have been recognized and appreciated by this class of '47.

"But these friends I leave behind me In your watch and ward I leave them."

CLASS WILL

We, the Indians of 1947, about to venture into the strange world of the pale face, being of a generous spirit do bequeath upon our fellow redskins our great knowledge of Indian lore.

To Big Chiefs Edgar M. Finck and N. S. Detwiler we leave the exacting task of managing our Toms River tepee.

To Mr. Ricketts we leave the promise to make enough history to furnish him with interesting material for the next 120 years. We appoint Florence Hoehe, Margaret Bauer, and Betty Jane Wardell assistants to Miss Costello, collector of wampum. In preparation for next year's classes, to Mr. Kuchnick we leave this bit of wit (or shall we say corn). Lakewood: "Gee, this is a great cheering section you have here." Toms River: "You bet. Before every game they sell root-beer." Mrs. Marvin receives sincere hopes she will be able to protect her Christmas tree from the vandals of Room 60. To Medicine Man Wood, the ane who stated, "Suffer the long contracts to come unto me," we leave plenty of them.

Squaw Jane Wellbrook leaves to Jeanne Gesser, Jeanne Hankins, Peg Woolley, and Alicemay Richman her cheerleading ability. To any girl who is lucky enough to get it, Celine Madsen leaves her seat in front of Mr. Rickett's desk. Tessie Schwimmbeck inherits the flaming locks of Hazel Schetler and Janet Irons. To Charles Aitken goes Bob Sinn's ability to speak out of turn. Elizabeth Langenberg (class wolfess) leaves the field clear for Barbara Lewis. Jim Tilton confers upon Eric Leber some of his "flagpole" build. Phyllis Bowker leaves to Shirley Tilton her naturally curly hair. (That should save you some trouble, Shirley.) Lily Mae Smith, Lois Sutherland, and Myrtle Foye leave their quiet personalities to Martha Fried, Emma McGuire, Eleanor Moberg, Lillian Nelson, and Anita Politano. Herb Zwickel bestows upon Harold Crane his speed and Alex Zsoldos his place of last on the sign-out sheets. To Harry Crenner goes Phil Grant's "deadeye" and his haircut.

Mary Sperlazza bestows upon Dewey Mae Snelling her athletic ability. Bruce Blum leaves to Allen Kassoff his camera. Alvin Clayton and Clyde Applegate receive George Roy's appetite. Charlotte Bearce and Eunice Rowe inherit Mary Cotov's accuracy in basketball. Connie Conover leaves to await the sound of wedding bells. To Byron Eno goes the shyness of John Meeker. Rosalie Clayton is left to dazzle the senior boys with her beauty. Gerald Blaine bequeaths his little brownie suit upon Frank Brown. Gerry Dech leaves her band uniform to Joe Ranoff. Think it will fit, Joe? Jim Seibert slips into the quarterback slot left vacant by Dick Howe. Junie Sica leaves to Jim Snelling the honor of leading the team to a championship. Sarah Simmons' sunny disposition is left to Carol Finley. Dot Gloffke leaves Jim Wright and Martin Davies to fight over her spot at the window in Room 60. Bill Garthwaite is the sole heir to Phil Armstrong's scintillating wit. Ethel Mae Barney leaves to join Wes.

Joe Dean blesses Fred Fialkowski with his absent-mindedness. Ben Harris, Marian Mc-Omber, and Mary Larkin, three amazing Spanish "brains," leave their ability to Ed Solomon, Janeth Klayman and Louise Wilbur. Sheila Fried bestows upon Janet Cook her man troubles. Olga Keeney is lucky to receive Pat Cain's speed on the typewriter. Janet Grant and Madeline Ditton leave to Mary Thein and Annabelle Bunnell their seots on the Forked River school bus. Sam Britton leaves to Jack Everitt screw drivers, wrenches, spark plugs and other auto mechanics equipment. Vic Radov slips into Pete Bender's guard position. Anna Cavender leaves to Barbara Fellows her post at the mail box. Ken Bostwick wills his little black book to Ken Hershey.

Martha Brafman leaves her brains to be distributed among Jack Johnstone, Robert Jones, and Robert Slocum. Kristina Radav leaves a 100 in history floating around. Any junior who can snag it will be mighty lucky. Bob Eagle leaves his history answers for Bernard Podolsky. Eileen Carroll, Mary Galen, and Nareen Kelly leave their dates to Eleanor Gilette, Marie Leber, and Margie Fischer. Gloria Douglas leaves Helene Larsen to carry on for the Red team. Ruth Claxton had to leave early because of illness and we all miss her. Pete Weber's "hot" trumpet is willed to Worren Doscher, but his permanent wove goes to Jerry Sprague. James ("The Lover") St. Pierre bequeaths to Chorles Shutts and Howard Mullens his technique. Mary Deroko leaves to Joonne Allardice her stature. Florence Applegate leaves her last name to Janice and Joyce.

Eastelene Hewitt and Lucille Allen bestow upon Mildred Sigrist and Phyllis Clement their ability to play the piano. Irene Biernbaum is left to supply everyone with cream puffs and other Palmhouse goodies. Barbara Disbrow leaves Dan Gibson all by his lonesome at the door of room 59. Walt Zuber and Andy String will WEA to Janet Conover and Clara Mac-Elwee.

Alice Keller leaves to Helen Brower any period she chooses in which to day-dream. Joan Worth inherits the color of Marian Johnson's hair. Lillian Marhevka bestows the bulletin board in the upper hall to Mary Radov. Dorothy Bonderchuck receives the neat appearance of Doris Filce. The senior girls leave to James Larkin a number of bandanas which he persisted in pulling off. Jean Robbins confers upon Lee Marsholl and Joan Leibrick her list of all the latest jokes. Angelo Carrozza leaves Seaside to be well taken care of by Bill Casler. The Gray sisters, Sara and Betty, leave their color to Rose Purpuri. Kotherine Haley leaves as quietly as she came.

Irving Wallach leaves Pat Hallock to carry on in the art department and the Lakewood Road to Clarence Webster and John Ericsson. Anita Schrier and Marilyn Golden leave the "Golden Grill" to Sylvia Flax and Lilo Maier. Scott Allen inherits Curt Van Blarcom's blond hair. Loretta Cramer, Bernice Stupensky, Lou Ann Lynch, and Irene Homolovich receive the Home Ec. Cottage from Ruth and Thelma Hann. John Oeser is the lucky boy to get Bob Hoey's beloved corner seat in room 60. To Arthur Quilty, Allen Preslaff leaves those teachers who insist on silence.

Winnie Hiering's quiet disposition is given to Dorothy Leary and Selma Levine. Olive Douglas leaves in room 60 the jar to be passed around for the various drives and her sunny smile to go with it. Dottie Stephens is left to take good care of Island Heights. Jane Zimmerman confers upon the Smith twins, Nancy and Patsy, her savoir faire. Because Ruth Ehrmann is so short, Edith Sprague has decided to leave her a bit of her height. Frances Flynn and Marie LeVance are the lucky girls to inherit Sis Ottoson's ability to swing a wicked hockey stick. Eddie Westen leaves the court clear for John Hopkinson. Jim Shappell leaves his sparkling personality to anyone who thinks he can match it. Blair Guker inherits those "red hot" drums from Paul Taylor. Cliff Campbell is blessed with Al Hoyes' twinkle toes. Sara Leibrick, Eric Rau, and Lester Weiss scatter their well-known gray motter among Doris Bettauer, Eric Leber and Ed Solomon. Bob Froriep leaves his brother Lee. Mary Jane Erickson inherits the severe beauty of Evelyn Younkers. Tad Jendy leaves his name to anyone who thinks he can tackle it. To Franklin Hennessey goes the fatal charm of George Yetman. Joan Kassenoff bequeaths upon Ellen Rioux her bubbling spirits. Herbie Sorenson receives that devastating smile of Bill Hansen's. Dick Tunney leaves all the teachers in peace. Doris Bettauer is the lucky girl to inherit the mysterious dark eyes of Joan Sinclair. The Beachwood Circle Shop is left to Carl Anderson and Fred Nuckle by Joe Stanley. Phil Fried leaves papers scattered about for the seniors to keep up with the "Times." Bob Camp unwillingly departs with his beloved Dodgers, which he leaves in safe keeping with Jack Shappell. Jack Benedict, Paul Ditton, Robert Mears and Leo Whalen have decided to just leave. Any other juniors are left to battle their way forward as we did. Moy the best Injuns succeed.

THE END OF THE TRAIL

This is the end of the trail for another senior class. With graduation from high school we pick up a new trail, the highway that leads to adult life. We face this life for better prepared than those who did not receive the educational and social experiences we have had in Toms River High School.

We treasure experiences gained in school and regret the necessity of leaving. Comradeships between teachers and students often develop into life-long friendships, and the many traits which mark the teachers as individuals will always be remembered. For those who have disliked school there is no sense of loss, if and when they graduate. This fault does not lie with the teachers or administration, but rather with the students themselves. Attendance of school, while it is compulsory, is not punishment.

To hold education as distasteful simply because it is beneficial is foolish. The corridors and classrooms are not in the least depressing, discipline is reasonable, and the restrictions placed upon the student body are formulated by the representatives of the student body. The teachers are exceptionally agreeable and put up with much "fooling around" so dear to the hearts of all adolescents. Homework is light; many who hail from other schools will attest to this fact. Practically all social functions for the younger generation are sponsored by the school. Athletics, often a financial loss, are encouraged. Certainly those who found school unpleasant overlooked these factors. We have overlooked none of them, and take our leave with much regret. Longfellow's "Hiawatha" provides fitting words for our farewell:

"I am going, O my people,
On a long and distant journey;
Many moons and many winters
Will have come and will have vanished,
Ere I come again to see you.
But my guests I leave behind me;
Listen to their words of wisdom,
Listen to the truth they tell you,
For the Master of Life has sent them
From the land of light and morning."
